Conceived by: Rob Ruggiero

October 30 - November 23

REGIONAL PREMIERE: The composer and lyricist of the musicals Falsettos, A New Brain and the 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, William Finn has been a staple of the American theatre for 30 years. At once witty, wistful, neurotic and brave, Finn's music has been revered by audiences and critics alike. Using a quartet of singers and a single piano, Make Me a Song is a musical celebration of one of our musical theatre greats. Recommended for mature audiences.

Beautiful Star: An Appalachian Nativity

By: Preston Lane

November 28 - December 21

REGIONAL PREMIERE: Reverend Roy Ledbetter and the congregation of the Open Heart Community Fellowship Church bring the Christmas story to life in an Appalachian setting with down-home laughter, toe-tapping music and a tug at the heart. In the tradition of the medieval mystery plays of Old England, Beautiful Star weaves music, humor and wonder together, re-telling great stories from the Bible in a festive gathering of family, friends and faith. Recommended for general audiences.

This Wonderful Life

By: Steve Murray

December 3 - 21

REGIONAL PREMIERE: Share the hope and humor of Frank Capra's adored classic Christmas film It's a Wonderful Life re-imagined as a one-man tour de force. There's the family man George Bailey; evil and miserly Mr. Potter; Clarence, the dotty angel-in-waiting; devoted Mary; and Zuzu with her petals. But we can't forget the image of a man standing alone on a bridge on Christmas Eve...the story of how he got there, and how he found his way back home. Brimming with hope and humor, This Wonderful Life is a must-see event that will provide the perfect start to your family's holiday festivities. Recommended for general audiences.
